

Farmers, air your woes here

MYSORE: 'Raitha Theerpu' (Farmers Jury) has been organised in Bangalore from November 30 to December 4 under the aegis of Deccan Development Society of Hyderabad.

This was informed to the media on Saturday by Director of Deccan Development Society P V Satish. He said the aim of this programme was to bring in democratisation in the area of agriculture research.

This is essential in the wake of more thrust being laid on research in the area of genetically modified seeds, forgetting traditional crops like paddy, wheat, ragi etc.

The programme will also provide an opportunity to the farmers to air their opinions besides interacting with the scientists in the realm.

Observers

Former Justice M N Venkatachalaiah, Dr H Sudarshan, Dr Gopal Khadekudi, Dr Dwarakanath, K R Venugopal and Devanur Mahadev are nominated as the observer of the event.

Interested farmers of Mysore district can participate in the programme.

They can enroll their names at the office of Karnataka State Sugarcane Growers Association at Neelakanteshwara Mutt, Gun House Circle in the city.

Interactive session

The officials of US Embassy and US Consulate General, Chennai will be visiting St Philomena's College in Mysore on Sept 14 and 15 at 2.15 pm and 10 am respectively, to apprise students about higher education in US.

DH News Service